

Welcome to The Courtauld Gallery

The renowned collection ranges from the Medieval period to the 20th century, and includes world-famous Impressionist and Post-Impressionist masterpieces by Manet, van Gogh, Cézanne and others.

Free Digital Guide to The Courtauld

Enhance your visit with exclusive audio content about our exhibitions and collection in our digital guide on Bloomberg Connects, the free arts and culture app. When you see this symbol  next to a work of art, enter the number into the app's lookup tab to access the commentary. Scan this QR code to download the free app.

Please visit courtauld.ac.uk/gallery/plan-your-visit/visiting-safely-during-coronavirus/ for our latest visitor guidance regarding COVID-19.

Visitor Information

Eating and drinking

Open daily

Striking, stylish and serving a seasonal menu of pastries, snacks and meals, the Art Café is The Courtauld's all-day café and bar located on the ground floor opposite the Gallery.

The Courtauld Institute of Art

The Courtauld works to advance how we see and understand the visual arts, as an internationally renowned centre for the teaching, research and enjoyment of art history and a major public gallery.

For more information about all aspects of The Courtauld, visit courtauld.ac.uk.

Become a Friend

Becoming a Friend is the perfect way to experience The Courtauld Gallery. Enjoy year-round unlimited entry, discounts in the shop and café, a special programme of events and much more.

Ask a member of staff or learn more at courtauld.ac.uk/friends

Shop

Open daily 10.00-18.00

Whether you're looking for a memento of your visit, a gift for a loved one, a statement piece for your home, or a limited edition, you will find something to suit your taste and budget in The Courtauld Shop.

shop.courtauld.ac.uk

Events, talks and tours

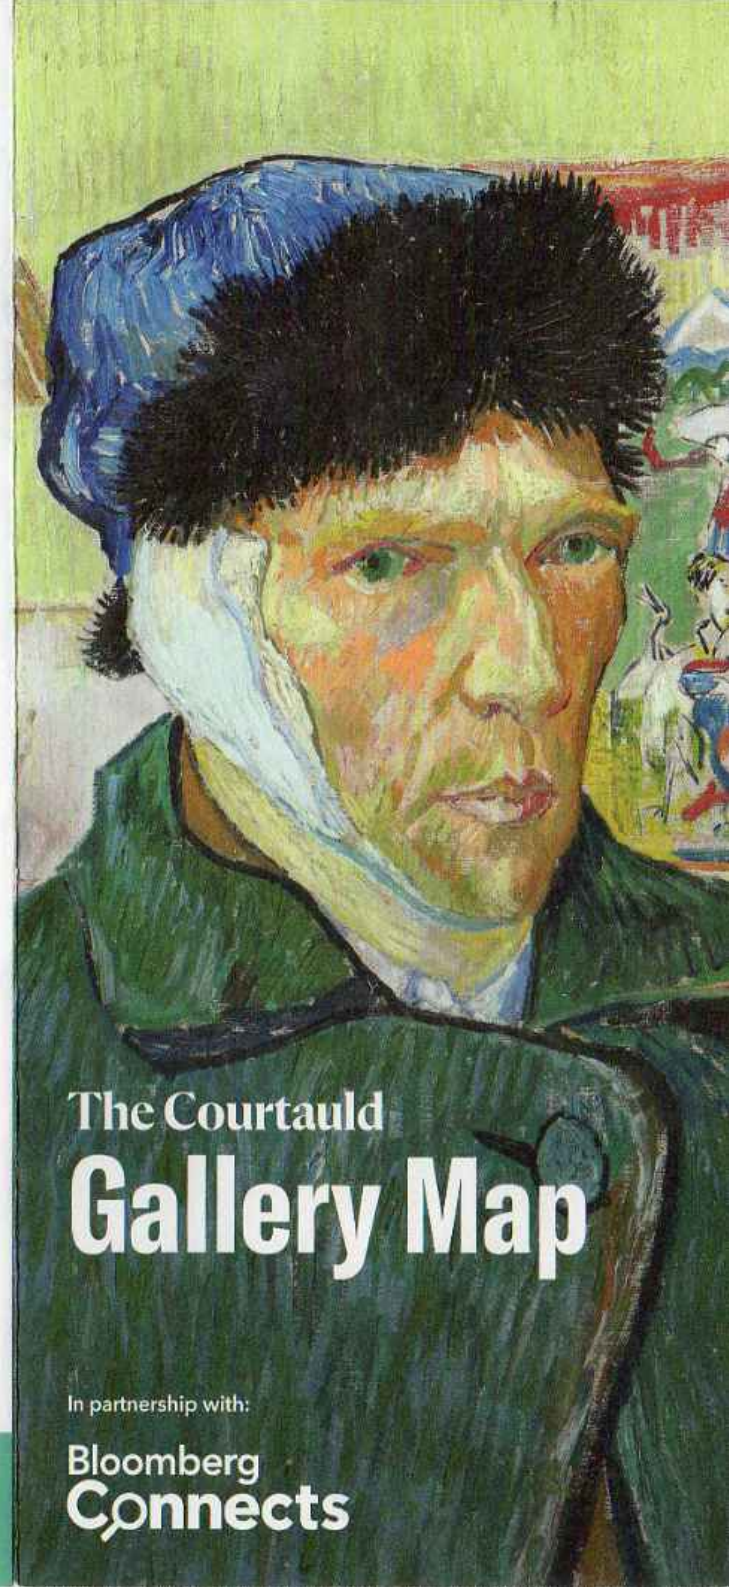

Explore the full range of temporary exhibitions, talks, tours and additional activities taking place at the Gallery throughout the week.

Check the website for full listings: courtauld.ac.uk/whats-on

Help us to protect the art

To ensure that all guests can enjoy the masterpieces on display in the Gallery, we ask visitors to deposit backpacks into the provided lockers in The Vaults.

Please avoid using your camera's flash, and keep use of accessories in the Gallery to a minimum, to allow other visitors to enjoy an unobstructed view of the artworks.

The Courtauld Gallery Map

In partnership with:

Bloomberg Connects

Follow our official social media channels:

Courtauld

TheCourtauld

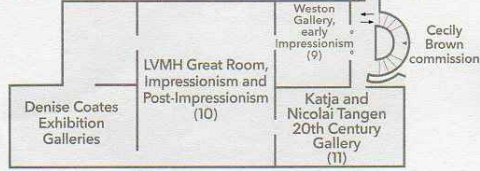

TheCourtauld

Third Floor

Impressionism and 20th Century

3

Early Impressionism
La Loge,
Pierre-Auguste Renoir

LVMH Great Room
Self-Portrait with Bandaged Ear,
Vincent van Gogh

Katja and Nicolai Tange
*20th Century Gallery
Rebuilding the Empire
Cinema, Leicester Square*,
Frank Auerbach

Early Impressionism
Two Dancers on a Stage,
Edgar Degas

LVMH Great Room
Autumn Effect at Argenteuil, Claude Monet

Bloomsbury Room
A Conversation,
Vanessa Bell

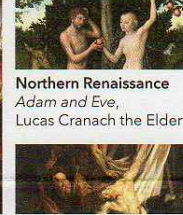

Second Floor

Blavatnik Fine Rooms

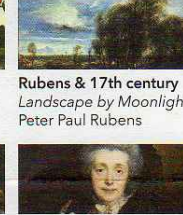

2

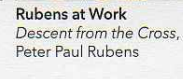

Italian Renaissance
The Trinity with Saints

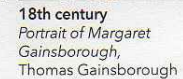

Northern Renaissance
Adam and Eve,
Lucas Cranach the Elder

Rubens & 17th century
Landscape by Moonlight,
Peter Paul Rubens

Rubens at Work
Descent from the Cross,
Peter Paul Rubens

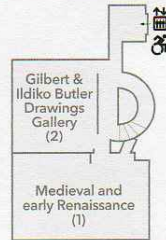

18th century
*Portrait of Margaret
Gainsborough*,
Thomas Gainsborough

First Floor

Medieval and Early Renaissance

1

Medieval Gallery
The Seilern Triptych,
Robert Campin

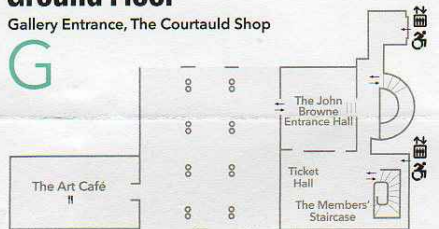

Medieval Gallery
The Courtauld Bag

Ground Floor

Gallery Entrance, The Courtauld Shop

G

Explore our temporary exhibitions:
courtauld.ac.uk/whats-on

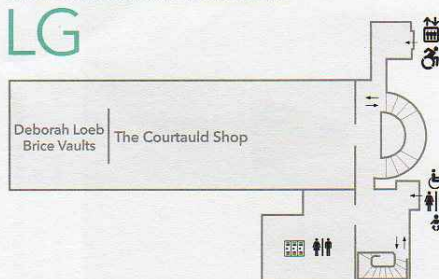

Complete your visit to The Courtauld Gallery with a trip to the Art Café

Lower Ground Floor

The Courtauld Shop, Toilets and Lockers

LG

Tell us about your visit by scanning the QR code.

For info about facilities and other key information, visit courtauld.ac.uk/plan-your-visit

